CRB Policies & Procedures Sec. VII(C): All complaints filed with the CRB will be brought before the CRB for review and determination. All KWPD internally generated complaints, or complaints filed by the public directly with the KWPD and not with the CRB (KWPD Internal Complaints), shall be subject to routine public records examination and copying by CRB Executive Director and forwarded to the Board members for their individual review. Should any Board member wish that the KWPD Internal Complaint be formally reviewed by the CRB, then the Board member will request the Executive Director to place that particular file as an CRB Agenda item for formal CRB review. All KWPD internal complaints, once public record under Florida law, shall be secured by and through a “Working Agreement” arrangement with the KWPD or through public records requests, copied and retained by the CRB Executive Director at the CRB office.
